

BENJAMIN P. HAGOPIAN

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Western Maine Family Medicine, Norway, ME

- Attending Physician, Family and Integrative Medicine (2016-2019)
  - Outpatient clinic physician, caring for patients of all ages
  - Integrative medicine specialty clinic focusing on holistic approaches to health

Maine Medical Center, Portland, ME

- Attending Physician, Department of Family Medicine (2014-2016)
  - Adult inpatient medicine physician, supervising residents and PAs in the care of acutely ill adults
  - Outpatient clinic physician, caring for patients of all ages and precepting residents in clinic

EDUCATION:

Maine Medical Center, Portland, ME, 2011-2016

- Fellow, Integrative Medicine, 2015-2016, through Maine Medical Center and the Andrew Weil Center for Integrative Medicine at the University of Arizona
- Chief Resident, Family Medicine, 2014-2015
- Family Medicine Resident, 2011-2014

Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, Cleveland, OH, 2006-2011

- Degrees: MD, MPH
- MPH major: Health Care Policy, GPA = 4.0, dual degree student of the year, 2011
- Combined medical school and master's thesis: "Better medical office safety culture is not associated with better scores on quality measures"

Tufts University, Medford, MA, 2001-2005

- Degree: B.S. in biology
- GPA: 3.74, summa cum laude
- Summer study abroad program in Talloires, France, 2004

RESEARCH:

Residency research

- Collaborated with Stephen Rose, PhD, and Stephanie Hatzenbuehler, LCSW, on social determinants of health and adverse childhood experiences and their relationship to healthcare service use patterns
- Presented poster of initial findings at the 2015 Maine Academy of Family Physicians annual update

Literature review

- Wissink T, Hagopian B. Mounting evidence on the benefits of perioperative hypnosis. Integrative Medicine Alert. 2013;16:27-30.

MD, MPH thesis

- Hagopian, B, et al. Better medical office safety culture is not associated with better scores on quality measures. Journal of Patient Safety. 2012;8:15-21.
- Poster presentation at the 2009 North American Primary Care Research Group annual meeting in Montreal, Canada.

Case report

- Hagopian B, Packer CD. Unusually Severe Bullous Skin Reaction to Sorafenib: A Case Report. Journal of Medical Cases. 2010;1:1-3.

LECTURES:

Practice Changers: Review of the Latest Primary Care Clinical Guidelines

Ben Hagopian, MD, MPH and Mark Bouchard, MD

- Maine Academy of Family Physicians Annual Update, Bar Harbor, ME, April, 2015

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Maine Medical Center, Portland, ME

Chief Resident (2014-2015)

- Supervised 21 family medicine residents
- Precepted residents in clinic
- Assisted with and taught at weekly resident didactic sessions
- Taught at medical student courses
- Provided ongoing support and teaching for residents who required remediation

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Mount Sinai Skills and Simulation Center, Cleveland, OH

Student Assistant (2007-2009)

- Prepared manikins, served as a standardized patient and performed administrative tasks around the simulation center as needed.

Fitness Together, Lexington, MA

Personal Trainer (2005)

- Trained clients in a one-on-one setting in order to attain their fitness goals.
- Former National Strength and Conditioning Association – Certified Personal Trainer.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT:

Maine Academy of Family Physicians

Member, Board of Directors (2019-present)

University of New England, Portland, ME

Volunteer Judge, CLARION case competition (2013-2016)

- Judged and provided guidance for interprofessional student teams presenting solutions to challenging healthcare systems cases

“Approve Medicaid expansion to save lives, struggling hospitals, tax dollars.” Portland Press Herald, November 2, 2017

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Board-certified in Family Medicine
- BLS certified
- Institute for Healthcare Improvement “Certificate of Completion – Basic Level” for completing training on quality and patient safety on the institute’s ‘Open School’ website.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

- American Academy of Family Physicians
- Institute for Healthcare Improvement

PERSONAL LIFE:

- Completed the Napa Valley Marathon in Napa, CA (2006)
- Ongoing interests in fitness, nutrition, sports, musicology, live music, good comedy, and spending time with family and friends